

RATIFICATION OF PEACE TREATY FAILS

SENATE ADJOURNS AFTER MANY ATTEMPTS TO REACH COMPROMISE AGREEMENT

VERSAILLES TREATY DEAD DECLARES SEN. LODGE

President Will Put Document Before Senate When It Convenes Again in December.

Body Leaves Much Important Business Unfinished.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Failing after three attempts to ratify the peace treaty the senate late tonight adjourned, ended the special session and went home.

Two of the three ratification votes were taken on the day drafted by the Republican majority, containing provisions which President Wilson had told Democratic senators in a letter earlier in the day would mean nullification of the treaty. On each of the votes most of the Democratic supporters of the treaty voted against ratification. All compromise efforts to bring ratification failed, the resolutions of ratification all going down with overwhelming majorities. The Republican leaders apparently pairing off bringing two-thirds they would if they voted the senate together for any against it.

Senator Hitchcock said the treaty was not dead and that he presumed the president would resubmit it on December 1, although he had no definite word from the president to that effect. He said he thought the Republicans had worked themselves "into a very awkward position" and had split themselves in the senate and the country.

The final vote on adjourning, sine die, was 47 to 27. In the general excitement, the senate failed to follow the time-honored precedent of appointing a committee to wait upon the president and notify him of the senate's intention to adjourn.

Resolutions thanking Vice President Marshall and President Pro Tem Cummins had been prepared, but no action was taken. The senate also adjourned without having read President Wilson's message vetoing the bill of Senator Cummins, restoring the interstate commerce commission's rate-making powers.

Lodge Resolution Defeated
The resolution of ratification of the peace treaty containing the Lodge reservation was rejected today by the senate. The vote was 39 for and 55 against adoption.

Four Democrats, Gore, Shields, Smith of Georgia and Walsh of Massachusetts voted with the Republicans for adoption. Democratic senators favoring ratification either without reservations or with less drastic intervention voted against the resolution which had been described by President Wilson as one of "nullification" rather than ratification. The negative vote consisted of 42 Democrats and thirteen Republicans. The latter were: Borah, Brandegee, Fernald, France, Gronna, Johnson of California, Knox, LaFollette, McCormack, Moses, Norris, Poindexter and Sherman.

The vote cleared the way for the consideration of possible compromise proposals acceptable to the majority of the Democrats and mild reservation group of Republicans. In order to put the treaty into a parliamentary situation where another vote could be had after efforts at compromise the senate then voted to reconsider its action. The motion was made by Senator Rood, Democrat, Missouri and was adopted by the vote of the Democrats and mild reservation Republicans.

The effect of the reconsideration was merely to bring the committee resolution back to the same status.

On the roll call occupied before the Democratic Leader Hitchcock to have the senate adjourn at this stage failed, the mild reservationists lining up with the other Republicans against the adjournment motion.

Vote on Lodge Resolution.
The roll call on the Lodge resolution follows:
For adoption—Ball, Calder, Capper, Calkins, Cummins, Curtis, Dillingham, Edge, Elkins, Frelinghuysen, Hale, Harding, Jones, (Washington), Kellogg, Kenyon, Keyes, Lenroot, Lodge, McCumber, McLean, McNary, Nelson, New, Newberry, Page, Penrose, Phelps, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling, Sutherland, Townsend, Wads-

Senator Lodge, after adjournment tonight, declared "the treaty is dead so far as this senate is concerned."

Republican leaders said the senate need not advise the president of its action nor return the treaty to him with formal notice. "The president may withdraw it when the senate reconvenes," Senator Lodge said, "and, of course, he can then re-submit it in the next session."

"But the treaty is dead in this senate and they killed it as I told

HOUSE ENDS SIX MONTHS' SESSION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Six months to the day after the congress convened in special session the house formally adjourned at 4:02 p. m., today after receiving word from President Wilson that he did not object to this action.

GENERAL SMUTS SENDS APPEAL TO AMERICA

JOHANNESBURG, Union of South Africa, Nov. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Lieut. Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, British member on the league of nations commission in a "message from South Africa to America" appeals to America "not to blast the hopes of the world" thru non-ratification of the treaty convention by the senate. General Smuts says:

"I am told that the league is in danger in the American senate. I can scarcely believe it. But if so may I send a message from South Africa to America?"

"My people are a small people; my voice in their behalf is weak. But the greatest leaders in America before now have listened to me."

"I trust my appeal will not be repeated. America has established a great record in the war. She has shown herself capable of the highest altruism. America rose to the height of her great opportunity, shamed the cynics who believed she was merely bent on money making and rushed wholeheartedly to the rescue of those great human ideals for which the allies were fighting. Her great act of unselfishness and moral idealism saved world democracy."

"Today the world is no less endangered. The machine of the league is wanted to save civilization from falling into decay. It alone can save tottering Europe."

"No nation put more faith, more effort into the construction of the league than America. It now only remains to ratify and preserve the covenant."

"Will the great leaders now lag behind the ranks; I cannot believe it. I cannot believe that America will after all block the way."

SUPREME COURT WILL HEAR PROHI ARGUMENTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The supreme court will hear arguments tomorrow on the constitutionality of the wartime prohibition act involved in three appeals from federal court rulings. One from Kentucky declared the act invalid and two from New York upheld it.

Owing to the short time elapsed before constitutional prohibition becomes effective an early opinion by the court is generally anticipated. The government asked that the hearing be advanced.

Ordinarily the cases would not have been reached for at least a year.

The Kentucky case was appealed by the government after Federal Judge Evans had restrained federal revenue officials from interfering with the removal from bond by the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company of about 700,000 gallons of whiskey valued at approximately $750,000.

Judge Evans held that the act violated the fifth amendment to the federal constitution, prohibiting confiscation of private property without just compensation.

ATTEMPT MADE TO TAKE LIFE OF ADMIRAL KOLCHAK
London, Nov. 19.—An attempt to assassinate Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government which up until recently maintained its capital at Omsk, is reported in a wireless dispatch received here from Moscow. Hand grenades were thrown at him. Six soldiers were killed and 12 wounded.

U. S. PEACE DELEGATION COMING HOME IN DECEMBER
Paris, Nov. 19.—The American delegation to the peace conference will sail for home on December 5 or 6 it was learned today. The British delegation will probably leave Paris about the same time, although no official announcement has been made.

RIGID ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS URGED BY MINING CONGRESS

Spread of Radicalism and Labor Dissatisfaction Must Be Checked.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 19.—Rigid enforcement of laws to check the spread of radicalism, uniform production of coal thruout the year to allay labor dissatisfaction, and establishment of a fund by the mining interests to educate the people against radical doctrines were urged in resolutions adopted by the coal section of the American Mining Congress. A resolution asking a federal law to prohibit the calling of strikes until after every means of conciliation had failed was referred to the industrial committee of the congress.

Charles S. Allen, secretary of the wholesale coal dealers of New York warned that unless congress imposed a heavy tariff on oil imported to this country there was danger of oil fuel destroying the fuel industry.

Adoption of the open shop principle and the passing of laws that would make labor unions responsible for contracts entered into by the coal section of the American Mining Congress in session here today by Edwin Ludlow, consulting mining engineer of New York City.

In his address Mr. Ludlow said: "We have come to another era of price fixing and while the present emergency warrants a price regulation it is well known and should be considered that the coal cannot be produced as cheaply under the conditions of a nationwide strike as when operations were normal. Expenses have to be met in such emergencies that would not ordinarily arise and it would be only fair to those operators who by maintaining the open shop are able to keep the 'throads and industries alive that they should receive fair remuneration as without them we would be at the mercy of the Bolshevik who are trying to turn this free American government into a Russian soviet tyranny."

Judge Gary has received the commendation of the whole country for his fearless stand for the open shop and when the miners again ask the operators to meet them at the conference table I sincerely hope that two things will be demanded before negotiations are opened: first, that no agreement shall be guaranteed that does not guarantee the open shop and second, that before any labor union is entitled to sign an agreement for a whole industry it must prove its responsibility by law for the carrying out of its contracts."

"We are facing serious times that must be met by a united people or we will find this country in the grip of that German invention, the soviet rule that delivered Russia into their hands and by which they are now trying to sap the industrial life of the allies who defeated them on the field of battle."

"The American Mining Congress should prove its Americanism by stamping in the strongest terms its disapproval of the present rule of ruin policy of the labor unions."

COMMENT ON ACTION OF U. S. SENATE
LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Manchester Guardian, commenting editorially on the American attitude towards the peace treaty, says:

"Whatever the result, it is essential for Europe to understand that American opposition is mainly the outcome not of nationalism or lack of imagination and still less of political maneuvering. It is rooted in the faults of the treaty itself."

"The covenant was born in an atmosphere of passion. Many of its articles are ambiguous, unpractical and inequitable. But dominating as the act is it has behind it the enthusiasm and aspiration of democracies who see in it a basis whereon a structure must and will rise and will count it a disaster if the hand of America is withdrawn from that work."

MEXICAN BANDIT LEADER CAPTURED
EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 19.—General Felipe Angeles, known as the intellectual leader of the Villa rebel movement has been captured near Parral, according to a dispatch received tonight from Governor Andres Ortiz.

Guahua by Andres G. Garcia, consul general here.

The dispatch received by Mr. Garcia gave no details as to the exact location of the capture, nor as to the time in which it was effected. It is believed, however, that the Villa leader was taken in a cave where he has been reported hiding for some time.

SWITZERLAND ADHERES TO LEAGUE
Berne, Nov. 19.—Switzerland's accession to the league of nations was voted by the Swiss national council today 124 to 45. The vote came after eight days of debate.

CONSERVATION OF COAL SUPPLY IS URGED BY HINES

Discuss Distribution with R. R. Regional Directors.

MANY PLANTS CLOSED DOWN

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Arrangements to provide for the most equitable distribution of coal that is possible to regions and industries that show the greatest need were discussed today by Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and seven regional directors at the close of a two day conference on the coal situation. Mr. Hines urged that every one be impressed with the fact that the coal must be used "sparingly" in order to make the supply last.

One of the first moves toward conservation was taken by the Cleveland coal commission when it cut off the coal supply of every industrial plant, except those coming under the head of "public utilities." The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad today suspended forty more passenger trains in various sections bringing the total number of trains cut off from that road to 126. The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad has also suspended twenty trains.

After the conference between Mr. Hines and the regional directors it was announced that unless an abrupt change for the better occurs, West Virginia coal fields would be levied upon for Western industry. It was stated that all regions in need of coal would be supplied from the West Virginia fields and regional railroad directors in the east have promised to aid the west in transportation and distribution. While this would necessitate long hauls, M. B. Clagett, Mr. Hines' secretary said this would be the most economical way to relieve the situation.

Mr. Hines, who left for Washington today, said before leaving that the problem now is to distribute available coal so as to avoid shortages.

Reports received tonight indicate that there is little change in the mine fields. Most miners are failing to return to work, awaiting the decision reached at the wage conference in Washington.

An announcement was received from Bismarck, N. D., saying that Judge W. L. Nuesse of the district court had issued an injunction directing that the mining property at Willton, N. D., which was seized with other lignite mines by the state, be restored to the Washburn Lignite Company by 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. The mines were seized by the state upon orders from Governor Frazer. Judge Nuesse in reviewing the governor's action said, "It seems to me that it counts on one hand to confiscation, and on the other to involuntary servitude."

In Colorado efforts to effect a settlement between the miners and operators have failed, and a second strike of the United Mine Workers of America will go into effect tomorrow.

FAMOUS BREEDER OF BERKSHIRE HOGS DIES
ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 19.—Andrew J. Lovejoy, member of several state boards, director of Chicago Livestock Exposition and internationally known as a breeder of Berkshire hogs, died at his home near Rockford tonight.

Mr. Lovejoy died on the farm on which he was born 74 years ago and is survived by a widow and a son, Wymon N. Lovejoy. In addition to local political honors, he was a member of the state board of agriculture for twelve years, general superintendent of the State Fair for ten years, a member of the forty eighth general assembly, elected on the Republican ticket, and for fifteen years a director of the international livestock exposition of Chicago, serving part of the time as president. He also was the first president of the Rockford Insurance Company and was interested in many public and private enterprises. He was an Elk and Mason.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church in Poscoe, Ill., where interment will be made.

FAMOUS RACER DIES
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 19.—Star Hood, owned by J. E. Medden, Lexington, Ky. and sire of Star Barton, Star Master, Audacious, David Harum, Star Court and other widely known American race horses, died of pneumonia at Harbison Farm, near Lexington today. He was 21 years old.

PRINCE OF WALES SPENDS BUSY DAY IN NEW YORK CITY

Whirled About Metropolis in a Kaleidoscopic View of Varied Activities.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—From skyscrapers to churches and from the stock exchange to the "movies" with the horse show as a side line, the Prince of Wales was whirled in a kaleidoscopic view of the varied activities of the metropolis. Everywhere he went huge crowds cheered him giving him a reception such as even New York has rarely witnessed.

Judging by appearances, the hit of the day for the prince was the "movies."

The exhibition was given at the old academy of music, where his grandfather had been a guest at the historic Diamond Ball. The prince laughed with unrestrained enthusiasm at the two comedies presented. He had asked for "something to laugh at" and he got it. It was a slapstick comedy with the hero doused in rivers, smeared with pie, bitten by dogs and hunted by goats, and his infectious laugh set the whole great audience rocking.

At the theatre entrance the prince was greeted by fifteen pretty girls dressed in the quaint costume of pre-Civil War times. The management had also managed to collect fifteen survivors of the original Diamond Ball who were presented to the grandson of the prince they had met to honor in their youth.

From the theatre the prince drove to Madison Square Garden where he was the guest at the horse show of Commander Eva Booth of the Salvation Army. The show this year being a benefit performance for the Salvation Army in recognition of its services during the war. The royal party passed to its box thru double lines of Salvation Army lassies who were sincere in the warmth of their greeting. After spending a few minutes chatting with Commander Booth, the prince left his box and entered the ring where he watched the jumping contests.

The prince paid a brief visit to the New York Yacht Club where he inspected the models of famous yachts, including the American's cup defender, and the numerous club trophies.

On his return to the Waldorf Hotel the prince evaded the crowds by slipping out from a side entrance of the hotel. He went for a quiet stroll on Fifth avenue unattended except by a couple of secret service men.

Tonight the prince was the guest of honor at a banquet given by the various societies of New York. Later in the evening he attended a ball given by Mrs. Whitelaw Reid.

Speaks at Dinner.
The world's hope of peace and progress has been and will be effectively promoted by the co-operation of the British empire and the United States according to Former President William Howard Taft speaking at the dinner tonight.

The prince provoked much laughter when in the early part of his speech he said:

"I thank you all for the kind way you drank to my health."

The others sang, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" when he finished speaking.

"I regard it as a great honor that ex-President Taft should have come to preside here tonight," said the prince, "and I am grateful to him for the far too generous words in which he has proposed my health."

"It is a great pleasure to me to meet the representatives here of six societies which are all devoted to the memories and traditions that bind the English-speaking people thruout the world."

DAUGHTER OF FRENCH PREMIER ARRIVES
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Madame Therese Jacquemaire, daughter of Premier Clemenceau, arrived here from France on the S. S. La France today to begin a lecture tour in the United States. Madame Jacquemaire is said to be coming to cement the cordial relations between the French and American people.

Another passenger on the La France was Dr. Alexis Carrell, noted French scientist, who returned to resume his work for the Rockefeller Institute after four years of war work in France.

SCHOOL HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE
Greene, Ia., Nov. 19.—Fire believed to have been of incendiary origin gutted the eleven room high school building here last night and destroyed its contents. Insurance of $43,500 was carried but this will not cover the cost of replacing the edifice.

LETISH FORCES TAKE BAUSKE
Copenhagen, Nov. 19.—The Letish forces have captured the town of Bauske, with a large amount of booty, according to Riga advices to the Lett Bureau. Bauske lies southwest of Mitau.

WAGE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN OPERATORS--MINERS AT STANDSTILL

Only General Situation Discussed at Wednesday's Conference—Prospects of Coal Famine Nearer—Will Try Again Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Prospects of a coal famine drew nearer tonight with negotiations between operators and miners apparently at a standstill.

A sub-committee of the joint wage scale committees, was in session three hours but it was announced that only the general situation was discussed. The conference will continue tomorrow.

"No proposal was made. The operators submitted no proposals. We are still in a receptive mood," said acting President John L. Lewis as he came from the conference.

The operators' committee remained in session an hour longer. Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operators' committee spoke optimistically, declaring that this was the first attempt at real negotiations since the miners and operators met at Buffalo, hence only general matters were discussed.

The decision of the joint wage scale conference to continue its negotiations thru a small group came after the owners and workers had heard from Fuel Administrator Garfield that as long as the government stands "the people of the United States need, must have, and will have coal, and they will not be prevented by anything the operators and miners may do."

The consuming public, the chief party in interest, in the present controversy, Dr. Garfield said, is "not in a mood to tolerate either excessive prices or prolonged stoppage of production."

The sub-committee is composed of two miners and two operators from each of the four states in the central competitive district with Mr. Brewster and Mr. Lewis.

The statement of the fuel administrator brought out that in 1918 the average cost of production of coal was $2.15 per ton, leaving to the operator an average margin of 46 cents per ton. This margin, he said, included interest charges, selling expenses and federal taxes as well as profits.

Orders Mine Returned by State.
Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 19.—Judge W. L. Nuesse in district court late today issued an injunction directing the action of Governor Frazer and Captain L. R. Baird of the state home guard, to restore to the Washburn Lignite property at Willton, N. D., seized last Thursday, under orders from Governor Frazer.

"It seems to me that it amounts on one hand to confiscating and on the other to involuntary servitude," declared Judge Nuesse in reviewing the action of Governor Frazer in taking over lignite mines in North Dakota and enforcing his proclamation by the use of available military resources.

"I realize that any mandate this court may issue, unless the government chooses to recognize it cannot be carried out without civil war," said Judge Nuesse. "I do not want that. I will make my order for return of the property to these plaintiffs at some future date, long enough ahead to permit of an appeal to the (state) supreme court should defendant elect to appeal. I do not know whether the supreme court will support my views of this situation. I do not believe, however, that the governor will resist an order of the supreme court."

Judge Nuesse dictated his order from the bench. His action was taken upon a motion filed by attorneys for the Washburn Lignite company for an injunction to prevent the state from operating the company's mines. These and other North Dakota mines were taken over by the governor after the operators refused to grant a 60 per cent wage increase to the union miners.

Colorado Situation Grave.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 19.—Colorado's coal production will be curtailed tomorrow by a second strike of United Mine Workers of America. Efforts today to effect a settlement failed. "The strike order stands," declared George O. Johnson, president of the union at Pueblo. "The men will not obey the strike call," declared the Colorado Fuel & Iron company officials.

Certainly it was a great blow to Peoria when Federal Judge FitzHenry there concurred in the opinion of Federal Judge Carpenter of Chicago in upholding the wartime prohibition law.
There are powerful interests in Peoria that eagerly awaited this decision by Judge FitzHenry, but evidently the court there decided the case on its interpretation of the law and the facts without regard to local influence or interests.

Some one fond of figures has shown that the average day's work in the U. S. is 7.5 hours and that idleness is costing the country each year something more than $1,000,000,000. People generally seem to recognize that the reduced hours of work and the consequent loss in production that largely influences the cost of commodities. Yet nobody is taking action to increase the hours of work or the total of production.

In order that the American people may get their reading matter at a reasonable price, Representative Charles A. Christopher, of South Dakota, has introduced a bill in the House which makes it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to export any print paper from the United States.

He would have any person who violates such an act fined $10,000 and imprisoned ten years. He would have it continued one year, because of the present paper famine, or for a longer period at the discretion of the President.

Now that the suffrage amendment to the constitution is being ratified by so many states, Representative Daniel R. Anthony, of Kansas, has introduced a measure in the House which provides that no distinction shall be made by any court in matters of naturalization of aliens because of sexes.

He stipulates that the failure, neglect, refusal or inability of any male alien to become a citizen shall be no impediment to the wife of such an alien from becoming a citizen. He would have all alien women who hereafter marry citizens retain their own nationality until they comply with the naturalization laws of this country.

Director General Hines of the railroads sounds a hopeful note in urging the public not to grow clamorous about the coal shortage. Mr. Hines shows that while production is greatly reduced and that reserves are disappearing that even the no more miners return to work there is practically a month's supply of coal in sight.
With this assurance and the knowledge that the government Chairman Garfield is pressing both the operators and miners to reach an agreement, certainly the time has not yet arrived for a feeling of great alarm.

A NEW ARMISTICE
SUGGESTION.

An officer of the Guaranty Trust Co., of New York advocates an armistice between capital and labor for a definite period, say one year and believes that thru such a "cessation of hostilities" that definite benefits may accrue to the people. As this authority sees it, there is evident on the part of the people a determination to do as little as possible for as much pay as possible, and the ruling passion is extravagance.
The armistice which brought an end to the world war was of the enforced kind. In some means could be found to enforce the armistice that this financial leader talks about, then his suggestion would undoubtedly bear fruit.

THE ENCOURAGING
PICTURE OF FRANCE.

Those who fear that radical influences may gain control of governmental machinery here will find little encouragement in the recent elections in France. There the people have declared for reasonable rule and policies by an overwhelming vote. The French people have this advantage in proximity to Germany for they have first hand knowledge of the industry that prevails there. They know that the German people are intent upon production, are working earnestly to rid themselves quickly as possible of part of their war tax burdens and seek the restoration of their commerce as quickly as possible. If the American people could really understand the intensive work that is being done in Germany it would serve at least to temper industrial unrest.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

Sorrow.

My ears are often sore and aching,
my heart is on the edge of breaking, I hear so much of woe
the men I know are all complaining, their briny tears forever raining, wherever I may go. In some poor chaps grief is abiding because the cars in which they're riding are made of tin and rust; it makes them sore when costly wagons whiz up the road like fiery dragons, and cover them with dust. Of course to swallow dust is hateful; but it were better to be grateful that they have cars at all, that they have boats in which to travel, at any speed, upon the gravel, and by the junk-yard wall.
The man on foot is feeling bitter because his neighbor, pompous critter, rides in a boat of tin; upon his triblys he goes toiling and in his veins the blood is boiling.
He scorns the cheer-up grin, green envy reader, is the answer; it's gawking like a deadly cancer. In Harry, Tom and Dick, it takes the bloom from human pleasures, it turns to dross the old world's treasures and makes the poor sick.

A large company of women witnessed the demonstration on salad making Wednesday afternoon.
Among the dressings which Mrs.
Houston made were boiled dressing, mayonnaise dressing, French dressing, fruit salad dressing and Thousand Island dressing. In making each of these dressings
Mrs. Houston explained in detail the method followed and when an opportunity was given for the asking of questions the women present were not slow to respond.
Witnessed Mrs. Houston's demonstrations at the chaletauqua last year, but were not loath to see the demonstration a second time.

One of the most popular salad dressings is the mayonnaise but the old method of adding the oil drop by drop is a tedious process.
Mrs. Houston used yesterday the oil is added a fourth of a cup at a time while the mixture is being continually beaten. This method is much easier than the old one and the result is just as satisfactory.

The Thousand Island dressing was made in a few minutes' time, using the mayonnaise dressing as a foundation. To this was added a tomato chopped fine (Chili sauce of catsup may be used instead) chopped green peppers and pimiento. Mrs. Houston stated that this dressing was considered by some to be expensive, but she said that it was not when one remembered that it was used in connection with the lettuce and nothing more was necessary. The making of French dressing was particularly interesting and the same was true of the fruit salad dressing. In making the latter dressing the importance of cooking the mixture until it coats
the spoon and then emptying it at once into a cold bowl was emphasized. The recipes for the various salad dressings which Mrs.
Houston made yesterday are given below:

Mayonnaise Dressing.
One-half level teaspoon dry mustard, ½ level teaspoon salt, ½ level teaspoon paprika, 1 egg,
1 teaspoon Horsford's acid phosphate or 1 tablespoon vinegar, ½ cups salad oil.
Mix the dry ingredients thoroly.
Add well-beaten egg and acid. Add the oil, a fourth of a cup at a time, beating constantly. More acid may be used, if desired, by adding it at the last.

Boiled Salad Dressing
Four level teaspoons sugar, 1 level teaspoon salt, 1 level tablespoon sifted flour, 1 level tablespoon dry mustard, ½ level tablespoon red pepper, 2 tablespoons Horsford's acid phosphate, 2
cups hot water, 4 egg yolks or 2 whole eggs.

Mix dry ingredients in top of double boiler, add the acid phosphate, then the water gradually, and cook over boiling water until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Beat the eggs slightly, add a little of the hot mixture to them. Beat well, and add to contents of double boiler. Cook one minute. When cool, thin with whipped cream or salad oil.

French Dressing.
One-fourth level teaspoon salt,
½ level teaspoon paprika, ½ cup salad oil, 2 teaspoons Horsford's acid phosphate or 2 tablespoons vinegar.
Put all the ingredients into a bottle and shake well. A bottle of the dressing may be kept in the ice box, mixed ready for use. It will separate but shake well before using.

Fruit Salad Dressing
One-fourth cup pineapple juice,
¼ cup orange juice, 1 tablespoon Horsford's acid phosphate, 2
tablespoons water, 2 eggs, ½

Heat the fruit juices, Hors-

This makes one pint of dressing.

Whoa Boy! Going some! Head up and tail over the dash board. Another one of those Mack Sennett two reel FEATURE COMEDIES that trots in the two minute class. Some fast comedy. It leaps and bounds with such rapidity that Ben Turpin (the crossed-eyed boy) who plays the lead can hardly keep up with the action on account of not knowing which way to look.
Did you see "Uncle Tom Without the Cabin"? Well, believe me, "Salome vs. Shenandoah" has it backed off the boards forty ways from Sunday. I am not going in to any lengthy discussion. This comedy doesn't need it. It will stand on its own merits. All I am going to say is see it.

The above feature comedy will be shown in conjunction with the comedy drama—

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dizziness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "pick up" the spirits. Ocand 25c.

A STRONG VAULT

Surely burglars would have had a hard time breaking into the old vault of the Jacksonville National bank. A single huge stone eight or ten inches thick covered the top and others of similar thickness the sides and workmen are having a hard time taking away the wreck. Something more than half a century ago some rats rented an office over a bank in Quincy and managed to get in to the vault by working from above and made a good haul but it would trouble them to do that with any bank in Jacksonville.

worth, Warren and Watson—35. Democrats:—Gore, Shields, Smith, (Georgia) and Walsh, (Massachusetts)—4.

Total for adoption, 39. Against adoption—Republicans:—Borah, Brandegee, Fernald, France, Gronna, Johnson, (California), Knox, LaFollette, McCormick, Moses, Norris, Poinsett and Sherman, 13.

Democrats:—Ashurst, Bankhead, Beckham, Chamberlain, Culberson, Dill, Fletcher, Gay, Gerry, Harris, Harrison, Henderson, Hitchcock, Johnson, (South Dakota), Jones (New Mexico), Kendrick, King, Kirby, McKellar, Myers, Nugent, Overman, Owen, Phelan, Pittman, Pomerene, Randall, Reed, Robinson, Sheppard, Simmons, Smith (Arizona), Smith (Maryland), Smith (South Carolina), Stanley, Swanson, Thomas, Trammell, Underwood, Walsh, (Montana), Williams and Wolcott—42.

Senator Fall, Republican of New Mexico, the only absent member, was opposed to the Lodge resolution, according to announcement by Senator Curtis, Republican whip.

The vote on the motion to reconsider was 62 to 30.

Senator Hitchcock sought to effect a cloture on the debate, but a point of order by Republican Leader Lodge blocked him. Vice President Marshall ruled that the reservations were in order and that the treaty, by the reconsideration had been brought back into committee of the whole. Senator Lodge appealed from the ruling. By a party vote of 51 to 42 the decision of the chair was overruled.

The vote having established that the treaty was in the senate itself and not in committee of the whole, Senator Hitchcock offered a resolution of unreserved ratification against which Senator Poinsett, Republican of Washington, made a point of order. The vice president overruled the objection and an appeal again was taken.

The senate again overruled the chair.

Marshall's Ruling Overruled. By a vote of 55 to 43 the senate overruled the vice president's ruling that amendments to the Lodge reservation might be presented. Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, voted with the Democrats to sustain the vice president and Senator Gore, Republican, voted with the Republicans against it.

Senator McCumber moved to strike out the requirement that the reservations must be accepted by other powers. Senator Lodge made a point of order which Vice President Marshall overruled and another appeal to the senate was taken.

With the same line-up as before the senate overturned the vice president's ruling, thus cutting off the McCumber motion. The vote was 50 to 42. After the two votes cutting off amendments proposed by the Democrats, a parliamentary dispute developed in which Senator Robinson, Democrat of Arkansas, declared that the majority had trumped the senate rules. Senator Lenroot, Republican of Wisconsin, denied this charge and declared that the practice followed and the votes taken were sustained by all precedent. Senator Lenroot added that amendments of reservations could be reached by a motion to reconsider each separate reservation.

Blame for the present situation in the senate was placed upon the Republicans by Senator Underwood, Democrat of Alabama, who called upon them to go to the country with the "assimilated issue" and said there would be no question of the people's verdict.

Underwood in Statement. Senator Underwood said that the American people demand peace at the hands of the senate. "This side of the chamber," he said, "is not responsible to the country for the action the senate may take. The control is in the hands of the Republican party. The Republican party is responsible to the people for the peace of the nation. What a spectacle is presented to the nation tonight by the way the Republicans are exercising the power entrusted to them by the people of the United States."

Senator Underwood said that the Lodge resolution in the vote taken upon it tonight rested only a little more than one third of the membership, the vote being, he said, a repudiation of the exercise of power by the Republicans. He criticized the parliamentary license, by which they were able to bring a "repudiated resolution" before the senate and charged that an attempt was being made to "drive an unwilling majority to accept the dictates of a small minority."

Senator Underwood urged all senators who had voted against the Lodge resolution to "repudiate it." He then explained what future procedure could be had. "We shall maintain that we are entitled to offer other resolutions of ratification," Senator Underwood declared. "The vice president already has ruled correctly that we have that right. But a majority of the senate destroyed his ruling. When this resolution (of Senator Lodge) is voted down again we must face the fact whether a partisan majority, which intends to destroy this treaty, can be controlled and by indirect measures say to the senate, 'you shall ratify as we present it or not at all'."

"That is the issue," Senator Underwood added, "I am prepared to meet it and the American people will know who is to ratify this treaty and who is to destroy it."

If further reservations are kept out by a majority vote after the Lodge resolution is again defeated Senator Underwood said Senator Lodge would have to adjourn the senate or notify the president by a resolution that the senate would take no further action on the treaty.

The parliamentary situation explained privately by leaders on both sides was that with prospective rejection again of the Lodge resolution, Mr. Hitchcock would again seek to offer substitute resolution be sustained by the senate and have a majority overrule the vice-president, shutting out the substitute resolution. This, they explained would leave the senate in the position of refusing to ratify the treaty, but without rejecting it.

Several courses then would be open, the leaders stated. The president could withdraw the treaty if he desired, they said, and re-submit in present or amended form; or the treaty could be left pending in the senate or re-committed to the foreign relations committee.

A Democratic move to have the treaty referred to a conciliation committee of Democrats and Republicans was defeated, the mild reservationists again lining up solidly with the other Republicans.

The motion was made by Senator Pomerene, Democrat, Ohio, and would have provided that a committee of six including Senator Lodge and Hitchcock be appointed by the vice-president to draft a compromise.

The senate voted 48 to 42 in tabling Senator Pomerene's motion to appoint a conciliation committee. All of the Republicans present except Senator McCumber who did not vote, voted the motion down, and were joined by Senators Reed and Shields, Democrats.

A new effort to secure consideration of substitute reservations was made by Senator Hitchcock who presented a motion to recommit the treaty to the committee of the whole with instructions to report his proposed reservations.

Hitchcock's Motion Voted Down. Senator Hitchcock's motion to recommit was voted down with the usual line-up. The vote on the Hitchcock motion was 50 to 41. Senator Smith, Democrat, Georgia, who had voted for ratification with the reservations, made a plea for a compromise and moved that the senate adjourn until tomorrow to permit negotiations between the two sides. The motion was voted down. The roll call on the Underwood resolution of unqualified ratification follows:

For Adoption. Democrats—Ashurst, Bankhead, Beckham, Chamberlain, Dill, Fletcher, Gay, Gerry, Harris, Harrison, Henderson, Hitchcock, Johnson, (S. D.), Jones, (New Mexico), King, Kirby, McKellar, Moses, Nugent, Overman, Owen, Phelan, Pittman, Pomerene, Randall, Robinson, Sheppard, Simmons, Smith (Arizona), Smith, (Maryland), Smith, (South Carolina), Stanley, Swanson, Underwood, Walsh, (Montana), Williams and Walcott—37.

Republicans—McCumber, 1.

Total for adoption, 38.

Against Adoption.

Republicans—Borah, Brandegee, Calder, Capper, Colt, Cummings, Curtis, Dillingham, Edges, Elkins, Fernald, France, Frelinghuysen, Gronna, Hale, Harding, Johnson (California), Jones, (Washington), Kellogg, Kenyon, Keyes, Knox, LaFollette, Lenroot, Lodge, McCormick, McLean, McNary, Moses, New, Penrose, Norris, Page, Penrose, Phipps, Poinsett, Sherman, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling, Sutherland, Townsend, Wadsworth, Warren and Watson—46.

Democrats—Gore, Reed, Shields, Smith (Georgia), Thomas, Trammell and Walsh (Massachusetts)—7.

Total against adoption, 53.

Senator Culberson, Democrat, Texas, was paired for the resolution with Senator Nelson, Republican, Minnesota, against, and Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, who was absent, was announced as against adoption.

G. O. P. Ready to Go to People.

Senator Harding, Republican, Ohio, said that on his side they would welcome the opportunity to go to the people on the question of who killed the treaty.

"If you are determined," he said, "that a minority in the senate will conduct itself with the same blindness that the executive did when he negotiated this treaty then you are certain to go down in defeat."

The Republicans were assailed by Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, who accused them of shaping their course on political consideration and declared the reservations had been drawn by the irreconcilable foes of the treaty with the secret purpose of defeating it.

Senator Pittman and Senator Penrose, Republican, Pennsylvania, clashed during a discussion of responsibility for the tie-up. Senator Pittman charged that every reservation in the Lodge resolution was dictated by "Republicans desirous of killing the treaty."

"Every Democrat," Senator Penrose, interjected, "has voted in orders from the white house. 'I deny that,' Senator Thomas, Democrat, Colorado, declared.

"You're about the only one that can deny it," Senator Penrose replied.

Senator Fletcher, Democrat, Florida, declared opponents of the Lodge resolution were not opposed to all reservations but that, taken as a whole reservations adopted strike at the heart of the treaty.

Second Vote on Lodge Proposal. At 9:48 tonight the senate began voting the second time on the Lodge ratification resolution.

The vote on the second rejection of the Lodge resolution was 41 for adoption and 51 against, less than the requisite two thirds and less than a majority.

Thirty four Republicans and seven Democrats, Gore, Myers, Owens, Pomerene, Shields, Smith, (Georgia), and Walsh, of Massachusetts, voted for adoption.

The opposing Democrats were joined by thirteen Republicans, Borah, Brandegee, Fernald, France, Gronna, Johnson (California), Knox, LaFayette, McCormick, Moses, Nugent, Poinsett and Sherman.

Voted Down Again.

As soon as the Lodge resolution was voted down the second time the senate began voting on an unreserved ratification resolution presented by Senator Underwood, Democrat, Alabama.

"Unreserved ratification" was also defeated, the mild reservationists voting against it. The vote rejecting unqualified ratification was 38 for adoption and 53 against. Advocates of unqualified ratification included 35 Democrats and one Republican, Senator McCumber.

Seven Democrats, Gore, Reed, Shields, Smith, (Georgia), Thomas, Trammell and Walsh, Massachusetts voted with the Republicans in opposition.

Republican Leader Lodge declared that under the rules the senate action was final unless the treaty was withdrawn and then re-submitted by the president. The Democratic leaders did not agree with him.

After disposing of the treaty Senator Lodge introduced a resolution proposing that congress declare the war with Germany an act of war.

The resolution was referred to the foreign relations committee.

Contents of Resolution.

The Lodge resolution would require assent of the house, declared that the actual hostility of the German government recited in the American declaration of war had ceased, that an armistice had been signed and proposed that congress declare that the "state of war is hereby declared at an end."

After the peace treaty had been laid aside and the railroad bill had been made the unfinished business, Republican Leader Lodge moved that the senate adjourn sine die. The motion was voted today.

The Lodge motion to adjourn was lost 82 to 5.

At 12:20 tonight the peace treaty was laid aside by the senate after three roll calls on its ratification had failed to muster the necessary majority.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT SQUATTERS?

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

In American early settlement of the west there were various classes. Among these were the squatters. As may be inferred from the name, these people came in to the unsettled lands, appropriated a little space, "squatted" there and had a home. They had neither legally surveyed lands nor deeds to their claims; and yet many held on to their holdings until they secured a deed thereto. Among the difficulties of the earliest politicians was that they should not do anything tending to dispossess this class of what had come to be their homes. As civilization advanced in some respects, say as far as the survey of the public lands, and the opportunity of buying them from the government, the uncivilized greed of humanity showed itself and what might be called the "profiteer" appeared. This individual, thinking only of himself, would buy lands squatted upon, and then come demanding his price for them. Of course this often worked a great hardship to the settler, who had possession of the land, and had made his meagre improvements of breaking in, clearing, or building a cabin and some outbuildings. Public sentiment was apt to be for the "squatter" and against the profiteer. How a woman outwitted such a party has already been told in "A Brave Woman," in this series, in the Journal of May 29, 1919.

The Military Tract?
While this section, so-called, was not a part of Morgan county, or rather Morgan was not a part of it, yet it was a matter of frequent and continued reference in the early days.

The land question lay between the Illinois and the Mississippi rivers, ranging north from the confluence of the Illinois with its greater neighbor, making a large part of what was Pike county—from the meeting of the two rivers up to the Wisconsin line. These lands were set aside by the general government as bounty lands for its soldiers in the War of 1812. Notwithstanding this allotment was by the power owning it, yet owing to squatters, or other complications of the times, titles over there were hard to make, free of "clouds" or claims.

In referring to this region, our people frequently spoke of going "over on The Military Tract" or of events happening there.

Freeing Illinois from Slavery?
The French settlers of Illinois left a legacy of human slavery to those coming after them, and this was not legally eradicated until after the territory had become a state, and the state government had been in existence for some years.

The final contest, actively and continuously, was waged between the Anti-Slavery and Pro-Slavery contestants for a year and a half, and culminated in an election held August 2nd, 1824; nearly six years after the setting up of the state government. It is a long, thrilling and interesting story how the opponents battled, but the number of voters was small—as was the population—and the difference in the election returns seems small past any consideration of the great importance of the issue and result.

The official vote was 4,972 for slavery and 6,640 against it.

But even then all the ill-treatment of the colored man was not prohibited and ended by law until after the Civil War.

Morgan county took a strong and creditable part in the fight against the inhuman "institution," giving, at the election, but 32 votes for slavery, to 432 against it.

Later on there were some famous acts called "The Black Laws" passed by our legislature; and the great war governor from Morgan, Richard Yates, used to say that his last official act, as governor was "to pardon a man for being black." The man having been convicted under the "Black Laws."

SURPRISING STORY OF SIMPLE SOLDIER

Hero Who Outfought German Machine Gun Battalion With His Rifle and Pistol—Offered a Fortune.

More inspiring than romance and legend reads the story of Sergt. Alvin York, who he did what he did, and what he is doing, but there is no story of the great war better authenticated. He is a product of the Tennessee mountains, where for more than a century his family has lived above the big spring up on Three Forks of Wolf, just below the Kentucky line.

He is a devout Christian, and second elder in a church which teaches that its members should not engage in war.

He is the man who, single handed, gave battle to a German machine gun battalion and with his rifle and automatic pistol out-shot 35 machine guns, killed more than twenty Germans and captured 132, including four of fliers. That, according to Marshal Foch and General Pershing, was the greatest individual achievement of any soldier of any country in the war. It has been officially investigated, substantiated and recognized by the highest of all medals, the Congressional Medal of Honor.

He is the man who refused a fortune for himself, declining to commercialize his fame.

And now, under the direction of the Alvin York Foundation, a non-profit corporation, he is giving himself and his time to the founding of a school for mountain boys and girls, where they may start at the very bottom and get a good, sound education with agricultural, industrial and home-making training included. Sergt. York will appear at Central Christian church on Saturday, Nov. 29, 8 P. M., under direction of the Rotary Club. There, this simple, direct fighting man, who keeps his head whether he is up against German machine guns or flattering offers of personal gain, will tell the story of the mountain life and its needs, and will outline the plans for the school that he hopes will meet those needs.

AUTO OWNERS TO GET LICENSES FOR 1920

City Clerk Pyatt is Supplied With Blanks Pertaining to the New Numbers—New Kinds of Classifications for the Year—What the Fees Will Be.

License applications and registration blanks required under the 1920 motor vehicle laws have arrived at the offices of City Clerk Richard Pyatt, who announced yesterday that the supplies are limited and will be distributed to dealers and garages in allotments accordingly.

Progress in the world of motordom has been marked by increased fees and additional requirements for registration of various kinds of motor vehicles. The 1920 laws provide for a broader classification of vehicles and registration of tractors for hauling purposes, which must bear license numbers. The registration of pleasure cars and trucks and vehicles carrying more than seven passengers has been separated in the new classification.

The various kinds of new blanks which are ready for distribution include: For pleasure cars only; motor trucks or vehicles carrying more than seven passengers; motorcycles; tractors; manufacturers and dealers; registration of chauffeurs; change of ownership and application for transfer for various classifications.

A letter calling attention to the new regulations and fees from Secretary of State Emmerson accompanied the blanks.

The schedule of fees follows: For pleasure cars, 25 horse power and less, $8 per year; 35 H. P., $12; 50 H. P., $20; more than 50 H. P., $25; electric, $12.

For trucks and vehicles carrying more than seven passengers (weight including weight of vehicle and maximum load) 5,000 pounds and less $12; 12,000 pounds $22.50; 15,000 pounds $35; more than 15,000 pounds $60.

A fee of $25 is required for tractors and tractor engines.

OILING ROAD TO ARCADIA

L. H. Maul of the north part of the county was a visitor in Jacksonville yesterday. Mr. Maul reported that the oiling of the road between the residence of Charles Black, three miles north of the city, and Arcadia was begun at an early hour Wednesday morning. Next spring this oiling is to be continued to the Cass county line. As authorities there are oiling to the county line, there will be an oil road reaching from Jacksonville to Virginia, that is, if the remaining distance between Mr. Black's farm and Jacksonville is oiled, and this work in all probability will be done.

It is possible too that the other route to Virginia, the Jacksonville, Havana and Peoria trail, will be oiled the coming season.

CITY OFFICIALS MADE TRIP TO RESERVOIR

Sites For Water And Light Plant Viewed—Location Just West of Pumping Station Is Favored—Survey Will be Made to Show Proposed Trackage—Consolidated Plant Will Mean Big Coal Saving.

City officials, representatives of the citizens' water committee and a few other persons visited the new dam and reservoir yesterday on a general trip of inspection. The particular purpose of the visit was to consider a possible site for the consolidated light and pumping station made possible by the bond issue recently authorized by the people. At the last meeting of the city council Alderman Chapin, chairman of the light committee, suggested that all the members of the council should look over the ground before any decision is reached as to the location of the filtration plant or the consolidated plant.

The party left the F. G. Farrell & Co., Bank at 2:30 o'clock and nearly two hours were spent at the dam. The party included Mayor Crabtree, former Mayor Henry J. Rodgers, Aldermen Flynn, Graft, Williamson, Cain, Moore and Chapin, John W. Merrigan, Mr. Walbridge of the Walbridge Construction Co., D. C. Diltz, agent C. & A. R. R., Engineers Baldwin, Henderson and Caldwell, W. H. Cobb, superintendent water department, Geo. Stoldt, superintendent light department; Dr. E. F. Baker, Walter Ayers and representatives of the local papers.

To Unload Coal Direct. As is well understood, it is the intention of the city officials to consolidate the light and pumping stations in a new building to be erected not far from the dam. The filtration plant will be placed adjacent to the power building and the arrangements will be such that coal can be unloaded direct from the cars without being hauled in wagons as is now necessary.

It will be possible to put the power plant on the west side of the city property and thus have it adjacent to the Chicago & Alton right of way and make it easy of approach for a switch connection. This would be the simplest track arrangement plan but there would be some disadvantage in locating the plant so far distant from the reservoir.

Pumping will be done by electricity. If in future years, Mr. Chapin explained, there should be a desire to change to steam operation the plant located on the west side would have its disadvantages. It seemed to be the consensus of opinion among the engineers and others yesterday after looking over the ground quite thoroughly, that the most advantageous location would be at a point not far west of the present pumping plant. The filtration plant could be placed there just as well as at the point 100 yards to the southeast which was originally chosen. Then a railroad switch could be run in from the Chicago & Alton by making a cut thru the hill on the west side of the city grounds.

The Favored Track Plan.

The earth from this cut could be used for a fill farther east under the proposed track and the extension by trestle work would take the track above the coal bins of the building and permit dumping. A track built in this way would afford ample surplus storage space for emergency use. With such a track at a time such as has existed during recent weeks the city could not only fill the bins with coal but also could dump a number of cars on the ground in the spaces at the side of the track and outside the building. This extra storage space would not be available if the track switch were built clear over at the west side of the city property as was at first proposed.

The cut and fill construction plan would have a greater first cost than the other plan, but all things considered, Engineers Walbridge, Baldwin, Henderson and Caldwell, together with Alderman Chapin who happens to be an engineer, were of one mind that the location not far distant from the present building would be preferable to the site at the west side of the property.

It was decided that a survey of the land shall be made showing the several possible routes for the proposed switch and estimates of construction cost will be made. A rough draft for the consolidated plant has already been made. It is the intention to move the boilers from the light plant together with the generators. It is estimated that two more boilers can be added to the equipment with the cost of the building and transfer of machinery covered by the money from the bond issue. It is not contemplated to buy new machinery at this time, altho, as indicated, Alderman Chapin considers that the additional boilers constitute an absolute requirement as a matter of safety.

Spillway Near Completion.

The visitors were very much interested in inspecting the spillway where a large force of men is now busy with the concrete work. If fair weather continues and it does not grow extremely cold, this interesting work will be finished in the course of six or seven days. The members of the party yesterday like all citizens who visit the reservoir were again impressed with its extent and the certainty that it represents the solution of the Jacksonville water question. As has been stated at various times, the consolidation of plants has been planned as a matter of economy, for by this means $4,000 to $8,000 a year can be saved in fuel costs. With such a plant there would be no wagon haulage and the city can buy direct from the mining companies instead of thru local dealers.

Bread, on the table	.15
Oysters	.60
Total	$8.62

If you haven't ordered your Thanksgiving turkey, it is just as well to make a note of it on today's shopping list, for, in spite of the high price, there are going to be more turkeys sold in Jacksonville this year than for a long time.

Last year the feast day came so soon after the armistice that housewives had not yet fallen out of the wartime habit of adding corn flour to the plum pudding and making heroic attempts at liking meatless mince pies.

Price Now 10 to 12 Cents.

Right now turkeys are retailing at from 10 to 12 cents a pound, live weight. Dressed they sell for 8 cents a pound more. A 7-pound turkey will be large enough for a family of four or five persons. The cheaper cuts of beef, suitable for mince meat, cost less now than last year. Boiling beef, "plate boil" in the parlance of the butcher, may be bought for 15 cents a pound. Apples, too, are slightly cheaper, 50 cents buying a small basket of Jonathans, at even the higher priced stores. Raisins, suet, spices and shortening for pastry, all are plentiful, and there need be no trace this year of the dark colored war flour 'n the pie crust.

Some persons insist on starting the Thanksgiving dinner with oyster soup, and it really makes the turkey go further. Oysters are from twenty-five to forty cents a pint and a pint of milk will be needed for the soup, depending on how many are served. Plenty of butter, too, will be needed. Then comes the turkey with dressing and gravy, and cranberry sauce as a matter of course. Cranberries are 15 cents a quart. Some cooks ease their conscience in the sugar shortage by adding a tiny pinch of soda when the berries boil, which corrects the acidity and lessens the amount of sugar needed.

Must Have Mashed Potatoes.

Fluffy mashed potatoes always must accompany turkey, and if you are of New England descent, you will desire squash, mashed and well seasoned with butter, salt and black pepper. Potatoes are 50 cents a peck at cash and carry stores, and pumpkin 10 cents a can. A couple of bunches of celery at ten or fifteen cents will be required for serving with the fowl and for use in Waldorf salad, which also calls for a few dried apples and English walnuts, cut together with salad dressing, to which whipped cream may be added. Good bulk olives may be bought for thirty cents a pint.

If one is fond of pumpkin pie than mince, or if the family budget makes a special dispensation for holiday feasts, both pies may be served. Pumpkins are none too plentiful this fall, and anyway it is much less trouble to prepare pies made from canned pumpkin. Each pie will require two or three eggs, and, of course, milk and seasoning. If a "flossy" touch is desired, whipped cream may be piled on top, or a meringue made from the whites of the eggs.

If father and son desire to give mother a real holiday, the family may dine at a downtown lunch room or restaurant, the Colonial or Peacock Inn, or at one of the hotels at from $1 to a plate.

ROUTT SCHOOL IS VISITED WEDNESDAY

Institution Is Attended by Small Number of Students—Building and Plant Site Excellent.

It isn't always numbers that count; a few often go as far as a good many; and that is what Miss Catherine O'Meara thinks of the pupils of Routt school for though they are not very numerous they have gone to school for some purpose. Their general information is quite creditable and they showed it when the writer visited the school yesterday morning.

It was rather chilly and even the small number enrolled didn't all show up as some of them have a long distance to travel to get to the seat of learning. The school house is pleasantly located and is at one side from the din and clutter of every day life and is a little more than three miles south of the city in the immediate region of Davis Switch, tho a good distance west of that water tank.

The plant is a good one. The lot is ample and has some nice shade trees tho a few more would not be out of the way. The directors, Messrs. Costello, Paul and Leach, have shown a good degree of interest in the school and have supplied it with a number of things very creditable. The writer doesn't now recall a school house he has visited with more pictures on the walls and well selected too and he is in doubt if he has seen a school building with quite as many. They also have maps, a good cabinet organ, a good library and a building up to date according to law.

The pupils are a bright set of boys and girls and answered very well a number of questions propounded to them. Some of the questions were not regarding every day life and yet a goodly portion of them were answered and a number of questions asked the caller while he was there.

The Pupils.

As a whole Miss O'Meara has good reason to be pleased with her little group of pupils. They showed good manners too in treatment of the visitor which is pleasing. They are:

Charles Hallowsell, James Costello, Leo Costello, Theodore Paul, John McManus, Robert McManus, Merle Harney, Alice Paul, Mary Rose Costello, Elizabeth McManus.

Service Through Organization

THE only difference between big business and little business lies in the number of units of effort and the character of service rendered.

The laboring man is in business for himself. He renders a service by selling his time, energy and skill.

Big business is the grouping together of a great many units to render a greater service by co-ordinating the efforts of the individuals and selling the results of their combined time, energy and skill.

Up to a few years ago the general public did not understand the ideals of service underlying big business. What it did not understand it distrusted and naturally condemned.

When the Allies decided to organize their armies on the basis of big business—for a common service—they began to get results, and the world saw the benefits to be derived from intelligent organization.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a big business, organized to render a useful service.

The objective of the Company is to manufacture the greatest number of useful products from crude petroleum, to distribute them so that they are available to all and to sell them at a minimum price.

The methods by which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) renders these services embrace the truest financial democracy, the most advanced merchandising practices and extensive scientific research.

These are intended to expand the usefulness of the Company as a public servant, by maintaining the quality of petroleum products manufactured at the highest standard, by making an adequate return to those who are investing their money or their time in the business of the Company and enabling the public to secure their requirements of such products at a minimum of expense.

It is this spirit of co-operation animating the Board of Directors which enables the Company to discharge its complete obligation as a public servant in a manner satisfactory to its patrons.

The Road-In New Overland 4 on Three-Point Cantilever Springs

You expect a bad road to ride as it looks. It did, until the introduction of the Overland 4 Springbase.

Overland 4 does not change the road, but it does change the manner in which you can ride on it. It gives you comfort instead of discomfort. It gives you a smooth, sailing sensation instead of bouncing and swaying.

The Diagonal attachment of Three-Point Cantilever Springs at the ends of a 130-inch Springbase gives long wheelbase road steadiness. Yet Overland 4 retains all the advantages—lightness, economy, and ease of handling, of 100-inch wheelbase. This means an altogether new standard of riding comfort, a noteworthy reduction in the wear and tear which lessens the efficiency of a car. The new springs give longer life to every part and thus minimize upkeep and replacement costs. Tires wear longer because cushioned against hammering blows. Light weight means marked economy in gas, oil and running expense.

Overland 4's equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting to Demountable Rims.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about 8¢.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure good and tastes very pleasant.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction, or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

changes as during the last few months. He says that reclaimed lands in the drainage districts have also been changing hands at prices averaging probably $200 per acre. Hillview is the main gateway to the drainage district area of Western Greene county, and is the creature of White Hall capital and enterprise interesting itself in the building of a town in connection with the development of reclamation on a successful scale.

Mr. Terhune, a land owner in the vicinity, declares that the town has now taken a start that will make it the leading shipping point on the Illinois river between Beardstown and Alton. Five surveys for a railroad north and south to connect with St. Louis and extending a few miles north of Hillview along the levee embankment, have been made. These surveys are commonly supposed to have been made by the C. I. P. S. Co., owners of the high power transmission lines through the drainage districts, but they probably are a revival of the steam railroad proposition that is identified with C. & A. interests. The old C. & A. franchise for the use of the Hillview district levee north along the river front has expired, but it seems to be renewed by the present interests making surveys. This affords a road bed between Grand Pass and Montezuma. The original proposition provided for a huge elevator at Grand Pass for handling the immense grain crops of the reclaimed area, but these schemes were stopped by the war. From Grand Pass south various surveys have been made to Eldred, where the C. & A. line south from there is to be tapped. This line south from Eldred was built about five years ago, and is eight miles in length, extending from Eldred to Titus. From Titus to Grafton is a little less than twenty miles, and by building a connection between Titus and Grafton a new line would be found to St. Louis by connecting with the C. P. & St. L. track at Grafton, this road being under the C. & A. management. A survey has also been made to Jerseyville from Titus, but the Grafton connection seems to be the one under more serious consideration. This trackage would take care of the entire reclaimed district between Montezuma and Alton, and would also afford the C. & A. a shorter route to Kansas City, at the same time bringing Hillview, or Grand Pass, to the forefront as a river point.

Mr. Terhune, who spent the greater part of his life at White Hall, where he is well known, says that all kinds of improvements are in progress about Hillview. In the Hartwell district, two new ditches are being dug, but one is delayed by legal processes, and all ditches are being cleaned. Everywhere the roads are being given strict attention, and several new iron bridges are to be erected. In town new business buildings are to be erected by Charles Coats, grocer, and Buel Black, implement dealer. An evaporator and packing plant is to be built by A. L. McClay, Wm. Hunnicutt recently completed a brick garage. A new steam unit was recently added to the pumping plant of the Hillview drainage district, making two steam units and one electric unit with which to keep the lands free from surplus water. The Hartwell district pumping station is a model, but of less capacity than the Hillview pumps.

DOUGLAS INSTITUTE IS FINE SCHOOL

It is well always to be aspiring and aim high and that probably was the reason the people who built the schoolhouse about seven miles south and a little west of town called it Douglas Institute. A rather pretentious name for a rural schoolhouse but who has a better right to a big name than the good people of the country districts and their schoolhouses?

Douglas Institute is pleasantly located and is supplied with an excellent playground and some splendid shade trees. The first time the directors, Mrs. Samuel Butler, Charles Thies and Lewis Wahl, got a little time to spare they might as well make kindling wood of the remnants of a fence that surrounds the place as it is no protection and rather unsightly. The schoolhouse is well constructed with the modern improvements of ventilating, heating apparatus, proper light and excellent seats and desks. The equipments can hardly be called standard. The maps are out of shape and lacking though there is a good library but no globe. They have a portrait of Washington and one of Lincoln and that is all. There is plenty of room for a portrait each of Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and other great men as well as some American landscapes. There is a commodious vestibule and the building presents a cheerful appearance.

Miss Cecile Thady, the capable teacher, welcomed the visitor as he appeared and placed the room and pupils at his disposal. He wasn't long having the children suitably arranged as near him as possible as he proceeded to deliver his address. The pupils are much to be commended for the manner in which they answered some questions asked them. They spoke up promptly and in unison in a way that was well pleasing. They also asked a number of questions which is always so pleasing to the writer.

The visitor's good friend, Alex Currier was present and several others said they would try to get there, but were probably too busy as the weather is wonderfully fine for work. The pupils are: Miles Fitzpatrick, Francis Wahl, Loretto Welsh, Kathryn Carrigan, Helen Welsh, Bertha Thies, Ida Welsh, Lewis Wahl, George Grimmett, Margaret Fitzpatrick, Pauline Bell, Vincent Carrigan, Paul Thies, Marie Carrigan, Ralph Grimmett.

Horse Still Big Asset.
The papers have been carrying the statement of a horse-shoer as an authority on the passing of the horse. The article appeared subsequent to an interview from W. S. Corsa, proprietor of Gregory Farm and one of the leading Percheron breeders of the world, and the Corsa article remains intact, notwithstanding contrary views. Mr. Corsa stated at the time that the driving horse is practically a thing of the past, and it is this kind of horse that the horse-shoer quoted depended on for his livelihood when he states that the horse is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. The Percheron horse business at Gregory Farm is at this time pointing upward, and one of the best barometers of Percheron horse conditions is to be found at this establishment. This upward trend is true of other breeds of horses of the heavy type for working purposes. There was a buyer here from Canada recently who made a purchase of valuable Percherons for shipment to the dominion. This same purchaser was here a couple of years ago with the money in his pocket with which to buy, but he did not buy until on the occasion of the last visit. A bureau is being established in New York in the interest of the horse that will combat the idea that the auto is transplanting the horse in every way. Mr. Corsa shows that the main effect of the auto on the horse business has been in the practical elimination of the driving class. The heavy draft work horse of the Percheron and like types is growing in increasing importance and utility for general farm purposes.

IN MEMORIAM
The Clark's Chapel Ladies' Aid met Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 19th, with Mrs. Charles McDonald. Miss Anna McDonald had charge of the meeting. She read the following poem which was presented by a member of the Aid.
Out of today's turmoil and strife,
And these earthly joys and care,
They have gone to the home of love, true life;
For our Father had need of them there.

Like the beautiful rose in the June day's blush,
Of a golden noon-day dream,
Their lives have enriched ours in every way,
With affections divinely serene.
With our hearts trampled down,
With the sadness of loss,
And some of our brightest hopes slain.
We realize that "our loss is heaven's gain."
They have passed so quickly from us,
Let us question not this way.
We know, God called their souls answered.
Wafted like the breeze of May.

Let us labor on unerring,
Let us work in one accord;
Bind us all in bonds of friendship,
If it be, Thy will, O Lord.
Life is always so uncertain,
Death, to us, should be more sweet,
If our trust is in our Maker
If we're humbled before his seat.
Let us profit by this lesson,
God has made our hearts to feel,
We must work for a grander purpose
And with greater zeal.

Till around the "Throne of Glory",
In the better land,
By the grace of God we'll meet each other,
And there "Sometime We'll Understand".
At the regular business meeting the following resolution was adopted:

If Constipated, Bilious or Headachy, take "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, or sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system, is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

Tire After Tire, Millers Outrun All Standard Mileage Guarantees

ALL Millers are long distance runners. Under like conditions all wear the same. Not a few give unusual mileage. But every one outruns all standard mileage guarantees.

Every Miller Tire, regardless of the mileage run, is guaranteed against defects in workmanship and materials.

The Severest Tests Prove This

Many of the nation's largest concerns have carefully tested every leading make of tires. These tests have been made over many years, and hundreds of thousands of miles.

Almost without exception these concerns have today equipped their cars with Millers all 'round. For Millers proved themselves champions. They outran all other makes.

Now YOU Be the Judge

Put Millers to the test on your car. Learn for yourself just how these famous Geared-to-the-Road tires excel.

Put a Miller opposite your favorite tire. Record the mileage each gives. Then you will be convinced. And will never again trust to luck in tire buying.

Drive up or call up NOW for your pair of Millers.

"Let's give 'em our smoke"

—Ches. Field

A real smoke—Chesterfield. The choicest of expensive aromatic Turkish tobaccos, the finest of sun-ripened Domestic leaf, blended by an original and exclusive method that can't be imitated.

In the blending of these costly tobaccos, our experts have brought out a new flavor and a mellow richness surpassing that of any cigarette you ever smoked.

Chesterfields sure do satisfy; not in flavor alone, but in value, in quality, even in their superior moisture-proof wrapping that keeps them firm and fresh always.

You want "satisfy"—that's sure. You get it only in Chesterfields.

HOME MADE RECIPES CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and any one who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Menthol-ized Arcline and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.
Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It is a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL
HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-Feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.
Seven a day for seven days—
Wonderful results.

WEAKNESS PREVAILS IN CORN MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Weakness prevailed most of the time in the corn market today largely as a result of depression in stocks, cotton and foreign exchange. The close was unsettled at 1-3-8c to 1-5-8c net decline with December
$1.32 3-8 to $1.32 1-3 and May $1.24 5-8 to $1.24 3-4. Oats finished 5-8 to 7-8 off and provisions unchanged to a setback of 52c.

Bears in corn had a decided initial advantage owing to denials that a sweeping embargo on railway freight was eminent. Anxiety however, on the part of shorts that nevertheless the coal strike might soon interfere to a serious extent with the movement of the corn crop led to a rally that went well above the previous close. Then demoralization of European exchange together with acute weakness of stocks and cotton brought about persistent selling of corn. Toward the last, something of a recovery developed but the greater part of the upturns from the bottom level appeared to be due only to adjusting of open trades.

Oats were weak with corn and were also bearishly affected by the liberal amount of oats on hand in Chicago elevators. Assertions that there had been foreign repudiation of purchases of hard

Here is One Thing That is Absolutely Impossible.

Rheumatism Has Never Been Cured by Liniments or Lotions, and Never Will Be

You never knew of rheumatism that most painful source of suffering—being cured by liniments, lotions or other external applications. And you will never see anything but temporary relief afforded by such makeshifts.

But why be satisfied with temporary relief from the pangs of pain which are sure to return with increased severity, when there is permanent relief within your reach? Science has proven that rheumatism is a disordered condition of the blood. How then can satisfactory results be expected from any treatment that does not reach the blood, the seat of the trouble, and rid the system of the cause of the disease? S. S. S. is one blood remedy that has for more than fifty years been giving relief to even the most aggravated and stubborn cases of rheumatism. It cleanses and purifies the blood by routing out all traces of disease. The experience of others who have taken S. S. S. will convince you that it will promptly reach your case. You can obtain this valuable remedy at any drug store.

A valuable book on rheumatism and its treatment, together with expert medical advice about your own individual case, will be sent absolutely free. Write today to Medical Department, Swift Specific Co., 431 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

THE OBSERVATORY

We have the word of the Lobo Star that Dr. Toothaker of Westmoreland, Kas., is a general physician and surgeon, and not in the profession you might have feared.

Senator Poindexter has introduced a bill to curb men who go about advocating the overthrow of the government. It is feared the senator has no consideration for Secretary Baker's conscientious objections.

The Leavenworth Times wants “a man of the hour” to break the industrial shackles which are now binding Uncle Sam and holding him helpless before foreign competition. And the man of the hour who solves the problem probably will not be any 6-hour-a-day man, either.

Rabbit meat is higher in Illinois this year than ever before, because—well, just because.

There's no question about it, we are living too well. We are eating too much, sleeping too much, taking too little exercise, and our muscles are getting soft. The whole situation is summed up in a headline carried in an exchange recently: “Bruised When a Piano Fell on Him.”

From the manner in which the Princeton football team has ignored all odds against it in the recent games with Harvard and Yale, one dispostor figures that an active sympathy with Princeton this year has been almost as good as the ownership of an oil well.

Why Patch Up a Sham? After all, might it not be better to defeat the league covenant altogether than to try to patch up a sham?

No matter how Article 10 is safe-guarded—the article putting us under a moral obligation to defend every boundary in the world—the first appeal for troops from this country would divide America into warring factions. It would open endless possibilities of trouble.

No matter how many reservations are adopted, the formation of the league council would be the signal for a grand diplomatic game to gain control of it for selfish ends. America would at once be involved in the intrigues of European and Asiatic politics.

Why subject ourselves to these dangers simply because of the insistence of a visionary who happens for a brief period to be President of the United States?—K. C. Star.

Monday's audience mystified

Tries vainly to detect difference between voice of famous tenor and RE-CREATION by Edison's new phonograph

Those present at Northminster Church Monday night saw George Wilton Ballard walk onto the stage. They saw him take his position next to a beautiful cabinet. They saw his lips give voice to the opening lines of Mother. Then suddenly his lips were still—but the song kept flowing on.

How came this? They were hearing Mr. Ballard's voice, yet Mr. Ballard was not singing. The entire audience gasped as it slowly realized that it had been unable to distinguish between Mr. Ballard's voice and the RE-CREATION of that voice by the New Edison.

The same was true of Willard Osborne, the talented violinist, who appeared with Mr. Ballard.

These were the daring tests undertaken Monday night at Northminster Church by Thomas A. Edison. He sought to prove that no difference exists between the voice of the living artist and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. The musically cultured of Jacksonville were invited to pass judgment. No test could have been more exacting.

Mr. Ballard and Mr. Osborne made comparison after comparison. The mystified audience tried vainly to catch a difference between the original rendition and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. No one could tell one from the other.

It was a triumph whole and complete for the New Edison.

The NEW EDISON

“The Phonograph With a Soul”

The instrument used in Monday night's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $285 (in Canada, $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

The New Edison alone of all phonographs is capable of sustaining this test. Until Mr. Edison knew it would do so, he regarded his work as unfinished.

Ask some one who was present Monday. Learn the amazing truth. Then come in and let us prove it personally to you.

SEE THE PACIFIC COAST THIS WINTER-AND SEE IT ALL

The climate of the Pacific slope—from British Columbia on the North to the Mexican border on the South—is mild and pleasant all winter, varying in degree of mildness as one journeys North or South.

Rose and geranium weather, for which warm ocean currents are responsible, makes it possible for the visitor—whether in Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles or San Diego—whether motoring along the Columbia Highway or El Camino Real—to view the scenic wonders of the Far West in comfort, and to engage in all out-of-door sports, as in springtime.

And the scenery of the entire trans-Sierra region is so varied—with its cloud-crowned peaks, its mountain-born streams, its waterfalls, its flower-carpeted valleys and ocean beaches—that no part of it should be missed.
